SCHOLARSHIPS & EXHIBITIONS.

Arranged in Alphabetical Order.

The holder of any Scholarship or Exhibition is ineligible for future competitions for that particular Scholarship or Exhibition.

The Award of any Scholarship or Exhibition is subject to the acceptance by the candidate of the General Regulations of the Academy and of the curriculum arranged by the Principal.

There are seventy-two Scholarships and Exhibitions in active operation at present. They are obtainable by competition, and are tenable in accordance with the General Regulations of the Academy (see General Prospectus, pages 40 to 42). Except where the contrary is stated both Students and Non-students are eligible. As a rule they are tenable for three years; but the conditions of competition and tenure vary in accordance with the wishes of the respective founders.

Full particulars and entry forms are obtainable on application to the Secretary about ten weeks before the competitions which are usually held in September. The holder of any R.A.M. or Associated Board Scholarship or Exhibition is, during its tenure, ineligible to hold any other Scholarship or Exhibition. The holder of a Scholarship is subject to a periodical examination, and if satisfactory proof of progress be not given, or if the conduct of the Scholar or Exhibitioner is considered unsatisfactory, the Committee may declare the Scholarship vacant and hold a new election for the residue of the term thereof. No departure from or alteration in the foregoing rules can be made except by special resolution of the Committee of Management.

The Scholarships and Exhibitions comprise:—

Associated Board of the R.A.M. and R.C.M.

Local Centre Exhibitions.

Six Exhibitions, founded in 1897 in commemoration of the Diamond Jubilee of Her late Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, are offered by the Associated Board of the Royal Academy of Music and the Royal College of Music, and are competed for annually by Candidates who have passed with Honours the Local Centre Examinations of the Associated Board. Three Exhibitions are tenable at the R.A.M. and R.C.M. respectively. Successful Candidates are entitled to at least two years' free musical education.

The competitions take place in July. Particulars can be obtained from the Secretary, Associated Board, 15, Bedford Square, London, W.C. 1.

The Bach and Beethoven Scholarships.

Founded in 1925, by bequest of the late ALFRED MORTON, Esq.

One of these Scholarships will be awarded annually for skill, intelligence, and promise shown in performance of Works by Bach or Beethoven for any instrument or voice.

The Works of Bach and Beethoven will be taken at alternate competitions. The competition in 1932 will be for the performance of Works by Bach.

The competition is open to candidates of either sex between the ages of sixteen and twenty-five on the day of the competition, whether studying at the Academy or elsewhere. The successful candidate will be entitled to free tuition for one year, subject to the usual conditions and regulations of the Academy.

Each candidate must pay a fee of One Guinea on entering his or her name.

Baume (Manx) Scholarship.

Founded in 1904 out of the estate of the late PETER HENRY JOSEPH BAUME, of Douglas, Isle of Man.

This Scholarship is awarded for promise in any branch of Music to Candidates between the ages of 14 and 22 years. The Scholarship is tenable only by persons born in the Isle of Man, or born of Manx parents, within certain limitations.

Candidates are required to pay an entrance fee of one guinea on entering their names, and must produce a certificate of birth. They must pass an Examination in general education* previous to the musical competition. Subjects: Orthography and the other branches of English Grammar, Elementary Arithmetic, Rudiments of Geography, and English History. A Candidate is exempt from the Literary Examination who can produce a certificate of either of the University Local Examinations, or who shall have attained such a position at School or College as the Committee may consider sufficient. Such exemption must be claimed when sending in entry form, and must be accompanied by certificate referred to above. The Examination and Competition will be held at such time and place as may be appointed by the Committee.

The successful Candidate is entitled to three years' free instruction in the Academy, subject to the Regulations of the Committee of Management.

Sterndale Bennett Scholarship.

Founded by subscription, 1872, as a testimonial to
SIR WILLIAM STERNDALE BENNETT, M.A. et Mus. D. Cantab.,
D.C.L. Oxon., F.R.A.M. (1816—1875),
Principal of the Academy from 1866 to 1875.

This is open for competition biennially by Male Candidates, in any branch of Music, who must be British-born subjects, between the ages of fourteen and twenty-one years, and must produce certificates of birth.

Candidates must pass an Examination in general education* previous to entering the Musical Competition. Subjects: Orthography and the other branches of English Grammar, Elementary Arithmetic, Rudiments of Geography, and English History; and, for Candidates above eighteen, any Foreign Language of their own choice.

* Copies of papers set in previous years may be obtained at the Academy, Price 6d. each.

A Candidate is exempt from the Literary Examination who can produce a certificate of either of the University Local Examinations.

Candidates are required to pay an entrance fee of One Guinea.

The value of the Scholarship is about £32 per annum, which is appropriated towards the cost of two years' instruction in the Academy.

The next competition will be held in 1932.

Blumenthal Scholarship.

Founded by Bequest of the late MADAME BLUMENTHAL, 1927.

This Scholarship will be offered biennially for competition by Students of the R.A.M. Candidates will be required on entering to send in Compositions with a declaration that they are their own unaided work. The candidate may then be summoned to a viva voce examination. The Compositions submitted must be serious works, not songs or small pianoforte pieces. The successful candidate will be entitled to two years' free tuition subject to the Rules and Regulations of the Royal Academy of Music.

The next competition will be held in 1933.

D'Oyly Carte Memorial.

The Annual Income is to be applied to payment of fees of three male or female students in Singing in such manner and under such conditions as the Committee of Management may from time to time consider expedient and advisable. ✓

Annie M. Child Scholarship.

Founded 1923, in memory of ANNIE M. CHILD, Student, Professor, and Fellow of the R.A.M. (1888-1922).

This Scholarship is awarded for promise in Elocution. It is open to British-born subjects of either sex, who shall be between the ages of 16 and 19 years on the date of the competition. Candidates will be required to pay a fee of one guinea on entering, and to produce certificates of birth. They must pass an Examination in general education previous to the competition. A candidate is exempt from this Examination who can produce a British University Local Examination certificate. Such exemption must be claimed when sending in entry, and must be accompanied by the certificate referred to above.

The successful Candidate will be entitled to the benefits of the Scholarship for two years, subject to the usual conditions and regulations of the Academy, which tenure, in cases of exceptional talent, may be extended to three years, at the discretion of the Committee. Power is reserved by the Committee to withhold the Scholarship upon the report of the Examiners that no fit Candidate has appeared at the competition. The value of the Scholarship is about £20 per annum, and the balance of the Academy fees is payable by the Scholar.

The next competition will take place in 1933, unless extended.

The Campbell Clarke Scholarship.

Founded 1903, in affectionate memory of the late Sir GEORGE RICHARD CAMPBELL CLARKE, by his Widow.

This Scholarship is open to British subjects of either sex, within certain limits of age, according to the subject for which the Scholarship is offered on any particular occasion. The subject of competition is fixed by the Committee of Management from time to time, and duly announced by them, and competitions are to be held under conditions determined by them.

The value of the Scholarship is about £36 per annum, which is appropriated towards the cost of three years' instruction in the Academy. The Committee are empowered at their discretion to withhold the Scholarship on any occasion when the Examiners may report that no Candidate has shown a sufficient degree of proficiency to be worthy of presentation, and in such case to again offer the Scholarship for competition.

Each Candidate is required to pay an Entry Fee of One Guinea, and to furnish a certificate of birth, or such other evidence thereof as may be acceptable to the Committee.

The next competition will take place in 1934.

Sir Michael Costa Scholarship.

For Composition.

The bequest of SIR MICHAEL COSTA, Hon. R.A.M. (1808—1882),
Composer and Conductor.

This Scholarship is open to Male Candidates, who must be natives of England or Wales, and is to be awarded for ability in Composition, especially as regards the faculty of inventing Melody. Candidates must be under the age of twenty-one years on the date of competition, and must produce satisfactory evidence thereof. They are required to pass a preliminary Examination in general education before entering the Musical Competition.* Subjects: English Grammar and Orthography, Elementary Arithmetic, Geography and English History, and, for candidates above eighteen, any Foreign Language of their own choice. Exemption from this Examination may be granted to Candidates producing an University Local Certificate or other satisfactory evidence of proficiency. An Entrance Fee of One Guinea is payable.

The successful Candidate is entitled to three years' free tuition in the Academy. The Committee has power to extend the tenure to four or five years in cases of exceptional talent or promise, and to determine it at any time if the Scholar fails to make adequate progress.

The next competition will take place in 1932, unless extended.

Dove Scholarship.

For Violin Playing.

Founded in 1896 by bequest of the late

MR. EDWIN SAMUEL DOVE, of Kilsby, Northamptonshire.

This Scholarship is to be competed for by Male and Female British

* See note, p. 7.

Candidates, who must be under the age of eighteen on the date of the Examination. Candidates must not be, nor ever have been, Students at the Royal Academy of Music. The value of the Scholarship is about £33 per annum; it is tenable for three years, and is awarded to that Candidate who shall be adjudged to possess such talent as to render it likely that he or she will attain to a high position as a Violinist. The Committee may withhold the Scholarship on the report of the Examiners that no fit Candidate has appeared, and, in cases of exceptional talent or promise, have power to extend its tenure by one year.

Candidates must pass an Examination in general education previous to entering the Musical Competition.* Subjects: Orthography and the other branches of English Grammar, Elementary Arithmetic, Rudiments of Geography, and English History. A Candidate is exempt from the Literary Examination who can produce a certificate of either of the University Local Examinations.

An Entry Fee of One Guinea is payable by each Candidate.

The next competition will take place in 1932, unless extended.

TRUSTEES:

THE CHAIRMAN, PRINCIPAL, and HON. TREASURER.

Lilian Eldée Scholarship.

Founded by COLONEL C. W. E. DUNCOMBE, 1905.

This Scholarship is held at the Royal Academy of Music and the Royal College of Music alternately, and in the case of the R.A.M. is conferred by the Committee of Management upon such female vocal student of the R.A.M. as may in their judgment be most deserving thereof.

The value is at present £60 per annum, which sum is to be devoted to the assistance of the Scholar in the further development of her art, either in England or abroad. The Committee may at their discretion elect a Scholar for two years, or two Scholars for one year each.

The Maud Mary Gooch Scholarship.

Founded by Sir HENRY CUBITT GOOCH, July, 1902, in the name of his Wife.

This Scholarship is open to British-born subjects of either sex between the ages of fourteen and twenty-one years on the date of the competition, and will be awarded to that Candidate who exhibits the greatest promise in organ playing. The successful Candidate will be entitled to three years' tuition at the Royal Academy of Music subject to a payment of £3 per term.

Candidates must not have been students of any one of the three great Metropolitan schools of music within a period of three years from the date of the competition.

Candidates will be required to play two pieces of their own selection of different character (a slow and a fast piece), or such portions thereof as the Examiners may desire, and a piece at first sight chosen by the Examiners.

The Scholarship will be awarded subject to the ordinary rules and regulations of the Academy as published in the prospectus.

* See note, p. 7.

An Entry Fee of One Guinea is payable by each Candidate on entering his or her name.

The next competition will take place in 1933.

Sir John Goss Scholarship.

Founded by subscription, 1875, as a testimonial to
SIR JOHN GOSS, Kt., Mus. D. Cantab., Hon. R.A.M. (1800—1880),
Composer, Organist of St. Paul's Cathedral, and Professor in the Academy.

This is open for competition by Chorister Boys (to be elected by the Council of the Royal College of Organists).

The holder is entitled to three years' instruction in the Academy.

The Examination is held by the Royal College of Organists.

Further subscriptions to the fund of this Scholarship will be appropriated to the increase of its annual value.

Applications should be addressed to the Hon. Secretary, Royal College of Organists, Kensington Gore, S.W. 7.

Gowland Harrison Bequest.

Founded by the late WILLIAM GOWLAND HARRISON in memory of his family.

A Scholarship and an Exhibition (alternately) are tenable at the Royal Academy of Music. They are intended to assist British-born male students in completing their musical education, preferably as Violinists.

The Scholarship is competitive and its value is about £100 per annum for two years.

The Exhibition, which may, but need not necessarily be competitive, provides free tuition for two years.

The next Scholarship will be offered for competition in 1932, by students who have already obtained the Bronze Medal of the R.A.M. for Violin playing.

Gwynne Kimpton Memorial Scholarship.

Founded by Subscription in 1931.

This Scholarship is awarded for Violin playing and is open to British-born subjects of either sex, who shall be not less than fourteen years of age on the date of the competition. Candidates will be required to pay a fee of one guinea on entering, and to produce certificates of birth. The value of the Scholarship is about £62 per annum. After payment of the Academy fees for tuition (fourteen guineas per term) any surplus will be handed to the scholar to assist in defraying his or her personal expenses.

The Scholarship will be awarded to the most talented candidate, but power is reserved by the Committee to withhold the Scholarship upon the report of the Examiner that no fit Candidate has appeared at the competition.

The successful Candidate will be entitled to the benefits of the Scholarship for one year, subject to the usual conditions and regulations of the Academy, which tenure, in cases of exceptional talent, may be extended at the discretion of the Committee.

The next competition will take place in 1932 unless extended.

The Emma Levy Scholarship

Founded by Miss EMMA LEVY, 1921.

This Scholarship is open to Jewish candidates of either sex who must not be younger than 15 and not older than 20 on the day of the competition, and will be awarded to that candidate who exhibits the greatest promise in Pianoforte Playing and the Theory of Music. The successful candidate will be entitled to three years' free tuition at the Royal Academy of Music, subject to the Rules and Regulations of the Institution as published in the prospectus. The Committee may withhold the Scholarship on the report of the Examiners that no fit candidate has appeared. Should no Jewish Student show sufficient ability at the competition, the Scholarship may be awarded to such other student of the Royal Academy of Music as may be selected.

Each candidate must produce a written statement to the effect that he or she has been brought up in the Jewish Religion. Such statement to be signed by the candidates' Parent or Guardian, or, if there be no Parent or Guardian the statement must be signed by a Jewish Minister of Religion or such other person approved by the Committee of Management.

An Entry Fee of One Guinea is payable by each candidate on entering his or her name.

The next competition will take place in 1934.

The Ada Lewis Scholarships.

Founded by Mrs. ADA HANNAH LEWIS, July, 1901.

Five of these Scholarships will be competed for annually at the Royal Academy of Music, or such other place as the Committee of Management may appoint. The subjects will be chosen by the Committee of Management, and announced about July in each year.

The Scholarships are open to British-born subjects of either sex not exceeding twenty-two years of age, except that in the case of female vocalists the Candidates must not be over 20 years of age. No one shall be eligible who is or ever has been a student of either the Royal Academy of Music or the Royal College of Music.

Liszt Scholarship.

Founded by subscription, 1886, in honour of FRANZ LISZT, Hon. Canon, Ph.D., Hon. R.A.M. (1811—1886), with which is incorporated the Bache Scholarship.

Founded by subscription, 1888, in memory of
WALTER BACHE (1842—1888),
Pianist, Conductor, and Professor in the Academy.

This is open for competition by Male and Female Candidates between the ages of fourteen and twenty years upon the day fixed for the beginning of the Examination in Musical Composition or Pianoforte-playing, and is awarded to the one who may be judged to evince the greatest merit in Composition or Pianoforte-playing.

It entitles the successful Candidate to three years' free instruction in the Academy, and, after that, to a yearly sum to assist him or her in the extension of musical experience for two years.

A fee of One Guinea must be paid by each Candidate on entering his or her name for competition. Should both subjects be taken the fee payable is Two Guineas.

Candidates must pass an Examination in general education * before entering the Musical Competition, the subjects of which are English Orthography and Grammar, Elementary Arithmetic, and the Rudiments of Geography and English History. Exemption from this Examination can be obtained only by production of a Certificate by the Candidate that he or she has passed a satisfactory Examination at any of the local or other Examinations held by any British University.

The next competition will be held in 1933.

Anne E. Lloyd Exhibition.

Founded by Miss A. M. LLOYD, November, 1903.

This Exhibition is awarded annually to that Student (male or female) who does best at the Annual Examinations in Elements of Music and Singing.

The Exhibition is open for competition to all Students of the Academy of either sex of at least two years' standing, whose principal subject of study is Singing, and who already hold the Bronze Medal for that subject. The Committee of Management may withhold the Exhibition if in the opinion of the Examiners no Candidate is worthy of the Award.

The amount of the Exhibition is about £12 12s., which will be applied towards the payment of the winner's fees for a further year's study at the Royal Academy of Music.

No Student who shall have received the Award shall be eligible to compete for the Exhibition at any future time.

* See note, p. 7.

Joseph Maas Prize.

(Not attached to the Royal Academy of Music.)

This Prize is competed for in each year by the then pupils of the particular School of Music which shall in that year have been selected by the Trustees. The amount of the Prize is £10, to be appropriated to the cost of a year's instruction in the selected Institution, and the Competition is confined to Tenor Vocalists, who must be British subjects. The Prize will be awarded to the Candidate whose voice, mode of producing it, and general musical attainments will, in the opinion of the Examiners appointed by the Trustees, render him most likely to take the highest position before the public as a tenor singer. The Trustees have power to withhold the Prize at any time if, in the opinion of the Examiners, no Candidate has evinced sufficient merit to entitle him thereto.

This Prize being of the nature of an Exhibition, comes under the Regulation on pp. 31 and 32 of the General Prospectus.

Macfarren Scholarship.

Founded by subscription, 1888, in memory of

SIR GEORGE ALEXANDER MACFARREN (1813—1887), M.A., Mus. Doc.
Cantab. et Oxon. et Dub. ; F.R.A.M. ;
